Quotes

"Chelsea Sisson's voice is both sultry and edgy, like an indie rocker singing the blues. Her songs speak of love and longing - replete with dark metaphors and irony, but always with a glimmer of optimism. Chelsea draws from classic jazz, rock, and pop to brew her own special musical potion that is sure to intoxicate you." – Dave Mallen, Owner/Producer, Innovation Station Music

"Chelsea's style is simply just cool. Her songs are a mix of the classic sounds of the 60s with an indie rock spin. She's an old soul with a unique and sultry voice. Her genuine love of performing shines through on stage!" – Cathy DiToro, fellow DC singer/songwriter & coordinator of Ladies Night On Stage

"Chelsea Sisson is a welcomed fresh sound to the Washington, DC area music scene. She has combined the classic vibe of early female rock from the 1960s with modern pop undertones reminiscent of Amy Winehouse & Lana Del Ray. On stage she's a storyteller, giving each song the attention it deserves so the audience connects even more with her songs." – Brian Franke, fellow DC singer/songwriter
